

COOK & BROWN

PUBLIC HOUSE

959 Hope Street

Want to learn how to make the best cocktail in town? Then join Cook & Brown Public House and the eGullet Society for an evening of classic cocktails. Your host and mixologist, Chris Amirault, will teach you the basics of classic cocktails, including foundational ratios and principles, spirits and other ingredients, and the crucial role of ice. Bring along your own shaker and strainer so that you can roll up your sleeves, practice, your technique, and enjoy the fruits of your labor!
